

Tech Tip Tuesday—March 31, 2015

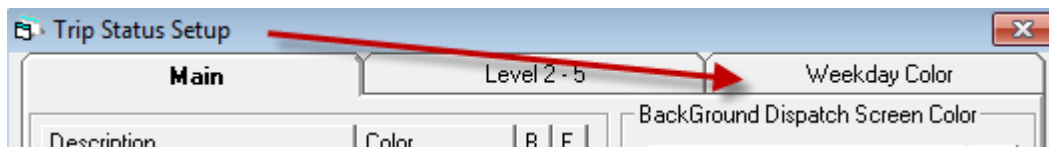

by David Hirsch

Color-coding the Days of the Week

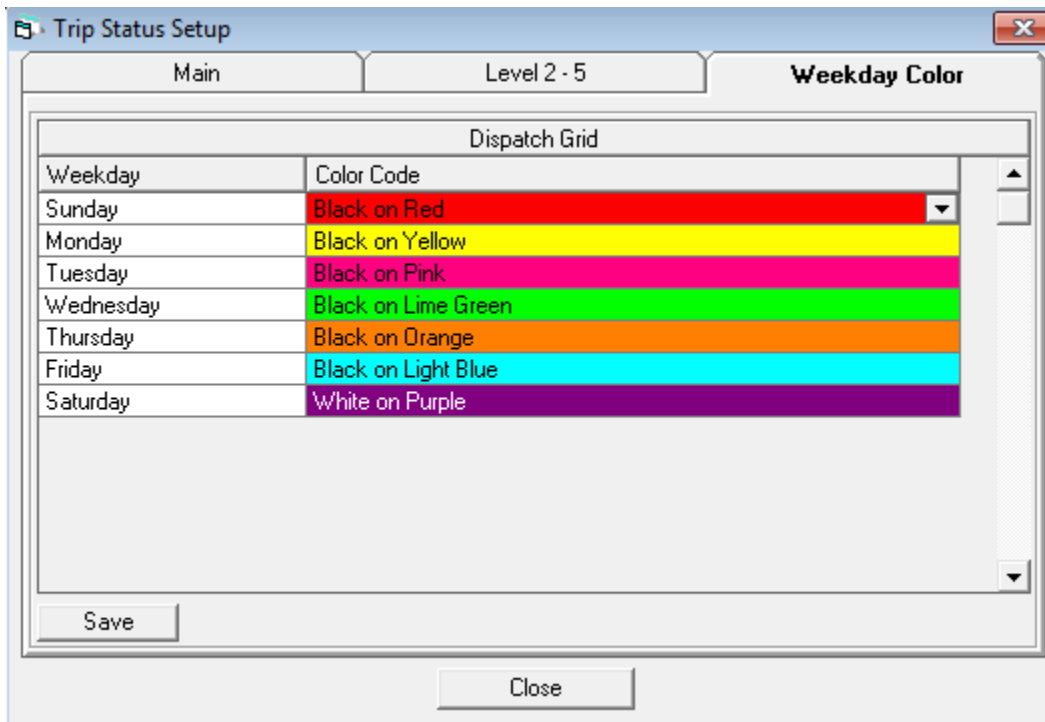

One of the features of Livery Coach is that, unlike some other systems, you are able to view multiple days on the dispatch grid (so you won't miss those trips just after midnight.)

That said, it can be helpful to have some sort of indicator to highlight when the day changes. One way is to set each day of the week a different color.

To do so, open Livery Coach Maintenance and navigate to Maintain...Trip Status Setup. The third tab is Weekday color.

To set the colors, simply set each day to the desired color from the dropdown list. (Populating the dropdown list was covered in a previous tech tip—if you need help with this, please ask us for a copy of the September 17, 2013 Tech Tip).

You can select any colors you like for the days of the week, but a bit of research shows that there is already a standard (at least in Thailand). So that's what was used for this example.

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Colors_of_the_day_in_Thailand

Once set, the next time you open your Dispatch Grid, the Pickup Time column will show your selected colors.

P/U Time
03/30/15 08:00P
03/30/15 08:24P
03/30/15 09:55P
03/30/15 10:13P
03/31/15 10:00A
03/31/15 10:50A
03/31/15 11:30A
03/31/15 12:04P
03/31/15 12:19P
03/31/15 02:51P
03/31/15 04:32P
03/31/15 04:35P
03/31/15 05:27P
03/31/15 06:14P
03/31/15 06:15P
03/31/15 06:29P
03/31/15 07:24P
03/31/15 07:29P
03/31/15 07:40P
03/31/15 08:05P
03/31/15 10:05P
03/31/15 11:55P
04/01/15 05:00A
04/01/15 08:00A
04/01/15 09:45A
04/01/15 10:00A
04/01/15 12:50P
04/01/15 01:30P