

Tech Tip Tuesday—October 27, 2015

by David Hirsch

Your Company Here

Recently we were asked by a relatively new Livery Coach company, “How can I make the rest of the Livery Coach community aware that I am now on Livery Coach?” We thought that was a good question, and this Tech Tip is one answer.

So, if you would like to feature your company in a future Tech Tip, please email news@liverycoach.com a one-paragraph description of what you’d like the rest of the Livery Coach family to know about your company. Please keep it brief—if it is too long, we will return it to you for editing. We also reserve the right to edit your submission. There is no charge for this service—our only requirement is that you be current with your support plan, and support transferring trips via the Livery Coach network (i.e. Livery to Livery). We will only mention one customer per week, and the primary criteria is order of submission. We look forward to hearing from you.

LCT East

We were happy to see so many of you in Miami at the Chauffeur Driven show. We wanted to remind you that we will also be exhibiting at the LCT East show in Atlantic City on November 9-10. We look forward to seeing some of you there.

LCT Las Vegas

Livery Coach will also be exhibiting in Las Vegas at the International LCT Show in February/March 2016. As usual, we plan on having our annual user meeting on Sunday afternoon, February 28th. Please keep this in mind when making your travel plans! More details, such as time and place, will be announced closer to the show dates.

Do you have a great tech tip?

Have you been reading these tips each week and thinking “these are great, but why don’t they mention xxx?” Maybe you’ve got a great tip that you think would be good to share with the Livery Coach community? Well...now you can! Simply submit your tip (complete with screen shots if applicable) to news@liverycoach.com. If the tip is “ready to publish” and we haven’t used it before, then not only will you get credit, but we’ll pay you $100! Reward the Livery Coach community and yourself at the same time. Before you write the tip, we recommend you check with us (at news@liverycoach.com) to make sure it hasn’t been used, or hasn’t already been written. If we like your idea, we’ll “reserve it” for you so you can write and submit your tip without worrying that someone will beat you to it.
