

Tech Tip Tuesday—July 2, 2019

Announcement (reminder)

Just a reminder that the Livery Coach office will be closed this Thursday and Friday (July 4th and July 5th) for the Independence Day holiday. We will reopen for normal business on Monday, July 8. As always, emergency support is available 24/7.

Boot Camp Survey—Results

As reported last week, based on survey results, we are currently planning our next boot camp on or about September 9-10, in the Philadelphia area.

We are now exploring venues—so if you care about suburbs vs city, please let us know by taking this very brief survey. If you really don't care, please take the survey anyway (that's one of the choices).

Enjoy the holiday (and for our Canadian friends, we hope you enjoyed Canada Day yesterday).
