KARHOO

Remember Karhoo? The company that made a big splash a few years ago and then collapsed?

Well, now there's a new Karhoo, and they are better funded (with backing from a big French bank, among others), and have a new team.

As such, Livery Coach has made arrangements to integrate with Karhoo (they twisted our arm), and we expect this integration to be complete by the end of the summer.

In the meantime, Karhoo has passed on the following for distribution to all Livery Coach Customers. It is possible that they may contact your company directly sometime in the future, so we wanted to let you know that they are legit.

Karhoo will be in your city soon!

Karhoo, the world's largest marketplace for ground transport, is very excited to announce that it has now officially partnered with Livery Coach, to allow you to get more work in a fully automated way, with no need for an additional integration. As part of the official integration with Livery Coach, you'll receive trips directly, with no extra work required on your part.

Karhoo is also now partnered with global port services agency, Intercruises, throughout the US. Even if you're not in a port city, you'll have access to the ~8 million cruise passengers a year looking for first mile, last mile transportation throughout their journey. Sign up below in the next 30 days to become a preferred fleet and get Intercruises work through Livery Coach!
